BAR & GRILL

—MIDTOWN AND LITTLE 5 POINTS—

BEER, WINE & SPIRIT MENU

The following is a list of all the Alcoholic Beverages that we stock at both Vortex locations.

Please be advised that if you order any beer, wine or spirit that you absolutely hate, that's just too bad.

We don't brew, ferment, distill or bottle any of it. We just sell it. The prices quoted in this list do NOT include applicable taxes. Occasionally a discrepancy in price or selection may occur, so cut us some slack.

AN AMATEURS GUIDE TO BAR ETIQUETTE

The Vortex offers one of the most extensive selections of beer and spirits to be found anywhere, so we can understand why you might decide to come in and "hang" at the bar. If you don't normally spend much time in bars, we would like to offer the following information as a guideline of acceptable BAR behavior. We hope that you will find this information useful. If you already know the ropes, we hope that you will find it entertaining.

PROVIDING IDENTIFICATION

Don't give anyone a hard time when they ask you for your ID. "How old do you think I am?" is a stupid question. Sideshow geeks get paid to guess your age. We on the other hand, are required to verify your age. By law, you must present valid identification to consume alcohol no matter how old you are. If you didn't bring your ID with you, and you are refused a drink, or denied access to the bar, it's your own damned fault for being a dumb-ass. We will under no circumstances serve alcohol to anyone that is visibly intoxicated, so straighten up clown-boy. It is also illegal to remove any alcoholic beverage from our premises. We do not make the laws, but we are required to obey and enforce them. Our liquor license, and the livelihood of our entire staff depends on it, so don't be a dick.

CHOOSING A DRINK

If the bar is busy, know what you want to drink when the Bartender approaches. Questions like, "What's a good shot?" or, "What beers do you have?" are silly and time consuming. As you can see by this Liquor Menu, our selection of beers and spirits is gigantic. If you're not sure what you want, please review this list.

ORDERING FROM THE BARTENDER

Never say; "I'll have a gin and tonic, and make it strong." In doing so you call into question our Bartender's ability to make a drink. You also make yourself look like a cheap idiot. If you want a double, ask for a double —and be prepared to pay for a double. Never snap your fingers or whistle at the Bartender, unless they happen to be a Cocker Spaniel.

PAYING FOR YOUR DRINK

If you are ordering "cash & carry," at the bar, have your money ready. Fumbling for your wallet or purse prevents the Bartender from waiting on other customers. Trying to pay for a single drink with a credit card is really pathetic, so if you don't have cash, start a tab.

TIPPING FOR SERVICE

Tipping is how our Bartenders make their living. Most people tip somewhere within the 15 to 20 percent range. Some "regulars" tip significantly more. At any rate, Bartenders know who tips well and who doesn't. If you can hear your tip hit the bar, chances are that you're being too cheap. As a general rule, don't mess with the person who signs your paycheck, cuts your hair, or mixes your drinks. The results are guaranteed to be anything but pleasant.

SHOWING YOUR ASS

Few things are as embarrassing as being cut-off at your favorite bar. Do everyone a favor. When you feel you have had enough, cut yourself off — before you get stupid. If you insist on making a jack-ass of yourself when you drink, then drink only on Saint Patrick's Day and New Year's Eve. These are official "Amateur Nights." You will have lots of company.

ACCEPTING YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

Don't be an idiot. Don't drink and drive. If you do not have a designated driver and you are not sure of your own condition, please never hesitate to ask — we will gladly call you a taxi. Cab-it — it's the right thing to do.
